News Release:

Crowley, LA, July 2, 2007--- Louisiana Bag Company has named Jeffrey Yandle as their North East-Carolinas Territory Sales Manager. Before joining LA Bag, Jeffrey was Sales Representative for GCC Drum for over 10 years and promoted within a short time to Regional Sales Manager covering the Northeast, Southeast and Gulf Coast Regions. Prior to GCC Drum, Jeffrey worked with various industrial companies selling packaging and solid injection-molded packaging.

Jeffrey Yandle attended Central Piedmont Community College and has attended numerous sales seminars, trainings, and trade shows domestically and internationally. He will be based in the Charlotte, NC area.

About LA Bag:

Based in Crowley Louisiana, LA Bag has been in business over 50 years with manufacturing and distribution experience in the industrial packaging sector. LA Bag manufactures vertically in-house, from granulate to end product, i.e. yarns and fabric for polypropylene products such as FIBCs, small poly weaves and BOPP bags. With over 165,000 square feet in distribution space, we have a multi-million dollar industrial packaging offering that allows shipping of in-stock items within 24 hours.

It remains LA Bag's philosophy to continue to grow and develop by strengthening our geographic presence throughout the USA thereby improving our benefits in supply chain, technological developments and product innovation.
